

Dr. Gerry Lewis sang his first solo in church at the age of 3 and eventually spent over 30 years serving churches as Music Minister, Youth Minister, and Senior Pastor. From 2008-2023, he served as Executive Director/Lead Strategist of the Harvest Baptist Association, headquartered in Decatur, Texas. In July 2023, he retired from HBA, relocated to the Texas Panhandle, and rebooted his ministry. He currently serves part-time as the Texas Baptist Men (TBM) Church Engagement Officer for the Panhandle. He is also Founder and President of YLM Resources, which includes That'll Preach Ministries, Next Step Coaching, and Life Matters Publications.

A frequent guest soloist and speaker at churches, he is also a bestselling author, former newspaper columnist, and blogger. He currently sings with both the North Central and Panhandle chapters of the Singing Men of Texas, as well as the Amarillo Master Chorale. He has been a featured soloist with both Singing Men Chapters in concerts in Texas, Ukraine, and Poland and was, in 2018, a featured soloist with all six Singing Men of Texas chapters in concert in Carnegie Hall in New York City.

Dr. Lewis and his wife of almost 40 years live in Amarillo, TX and have two grown children and 4 grandchildren (#5 on the way) who all live in the Amarillo area. More information can be found at discoveryouramazing.com.
